Phoents, Arix, Dec. 2.-As soon as Imperial county, Cal., forwards the $25,000 guaranteed by its supervisors toward the construction of the Yuma bridge, construction will commence A plan for the bridge has been adopted, according to a letter received by governor Hunt from the interior depart-

ernor Hunt from the Interior department.

The bridge is to cost $75,000. Congress appropriated $25,000 on condition that California and Arizona contribate equal amounts. The Arizona legislature did its part, but the California lawmakers turned down the proposition, whereupon the Imperial supervisors guaranteed the amount.

The completion of the Yuma bridge is of great importance to the Borderland route, as it will remove the present difficulties experienced in crossing the Colorado.

WILL LAY CONCRETE ROAD AS EXPERIMENT

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 2.—An expertmental mile of heavy concrete pavements in mile of heavy concrete pavement is shortly to be laid on South Seventh avenue, between the city limits of Phoenix and Salt river. The cost will be about $2000, half of which will be paid by the county and half by the citizens whose property will be benefited. Specifications are being prepared in the office of the state engineer and a contract will be let shortly. It is expected that the mile will be completed within 20 days.

This is a preliminary to submission to the voters of the county of a $1,-256,000 road bond issue. It is proposed to lay a number of miles of concrete road and the suprevisors expect that this first mile will prove the suitability of that type of pavement.

KNOLLENBERG SHOWS HE CAN MILK A COW

"I want you to know that lawyers can milk cows," declared Fred C. Kollenberg. "I have shown that I can milk a cow. Monday county judge A. S. J. Eyiar overruled the motion of Samuel Stark for a new trial in the case that Fred C. Kollenberg brought against him for $40 damages for breach of warranty.

Knollenberg brought suit for damages in the court of justice of the peace James J. Murphy for the damages, alleging that the cow he purchased from Stark did not give four gallons of milk as guaranteed. Stark contended, among other things, that Knollenberg did not know how to milk the cow. The jury in the justice court decided with the defendant. Knollenberg appealed the case to the county court, where the jury gave him a vergict for the damages sued for.

Answer: You can be very easily relieved of this bronchial trouble by using essence metho-laxene. This relieves quickly and certainly brings about a cure by its tonic and laxative action and therefore is superior to ordinary preparations, which only relieve. You can feel the medicine working on the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes, giving a feeling of freshness and strength to the entire system. Purchase a 21-2-oz. package of essencementho-laxene and make according to the directions on bottle and take eight to ten doses daily and you will soon be cured of your trouble.
